Familio is a tool to create your family tree and interact with your family members easily in a blog channel.
Sharing things with your family to become close to your blood.

There are 3 levels of family members and you can start to create your tree and see how it can be great for your life.

Doesn't matter where you are but all family can stay together. It's not social media, it's blood media that can keep the family close than ever.
